Applicants for Teams That Make a Difference

Applicants must submit five copies of a 1-to-2 page double-spaced summary as to why their team makes a difference. In addition to the summary, applicants are to submit to submit a one-page letter of support from the building-level administrator. (Note: any additional materials submitted will not be considered by the committee). Applicants must be current AAMLE members.

A “team” is defined as an identified group of adults (core, elective, and/or support staff) working together and striving to address emotional, social, physical, and cognitive needs of adolescents using current middle-level practices.

Criteria

Each application will be evaluated based on the following criteria and point system:

- Description of the team’s vision with defined outcomes for students (10 points)
- Description of the team’s identity with themes, discipline procedures, incentive programs, and parent/community involvement, etc. highlighted (20 points)
- Description of the team’s uniqueness including any activities or projects that set them apart (30 points)
- Description of how the team meets the diverse needs of the student population (40 points)
